RETE ITALIANA MICROFINANZA

Italian
Microfinance &
Financial Inclusion
Network

What is RITMI

The Italian Microfinance Network - RITMI - is a non-profit organization created in 2008, which connects various institutions committed to promote social and financial inclusion in Italy, support new ventures and employment creation, and develop financial education actions for local growth.

The Network operates both at the institutional and at the operational level, raising awareness about financial inclusion and microfinance issues to number of social structures and institutions, and developing tools and training paths for practitioners and organizations.

What we do

- ✓ We raise awareness about Microfinance sector's issues to public institutions and decision makers, nationally and internationally.
- ✓ We provide training programmes, services and capacity-building tools for the professionalization of practitioners.
- ✓ We promote good practices about financial education, prevention of over-indebtedness and to face usury.
- ✓ We encourage research and experimentation in the field of Microfinance, promoting analysis and study projects, and organizing conferences and workshops on these subjects.

Mission

- Fight against social and financial exclusion
- Support new business creation and employment
- Develop financial education and community engagement actions
